Disciplinary information listed here includes the most recent pending case and/or the most recent concluded case as of July 1, 2011 as well as any subsequent cases filed since that date. If an attorney has any disciplinary history, at least one case will be listed above, but this list does not necessarily represent a complete disciplinary history.

About Disciplinary Information

Concluded Discipline

Without further information, you should not draw any conclusions about past discipline. Some cases end with minor discipline or are dismissed with no discipline.

Pending Discipline

The fact that there is an ongoing case means that it is alleged that the lawyer committed misconduct, but there has been no decision finding those allegations to be true.
