

Visited 4/24/2008

What are you going to do to end the silen

04.25.08 DAY of SILENCE

GETInvolved
Register here and be counted

SIGN UP

The National Day of Silence brings attention to anti-LGBT name-calling, bullying and harassment in schools. This year's event will be held in memory of Lawrence King, a California 8th-grader who was shot and killed Feb. 12 by a classmate because of his sexual orientation and gender expression. Hundreds of thousands of students will come together on April 25 to encourage schools and classmates to address the problem of anti-LGBT behavior.

GETOrganized

Resources, tools and tips for organizing a Day of Action

GETInformation

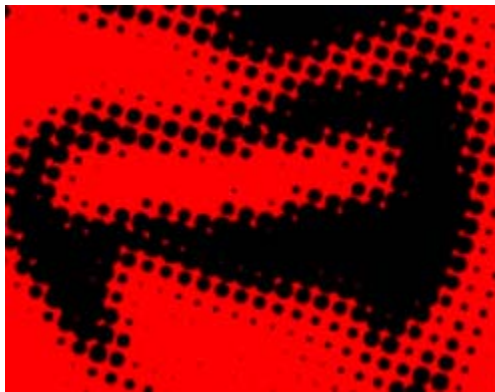

History, FAQs, endorsements, testimonials and more

GETStuff

Be visible. Buy buttons, t-shirts, and more

Donate

Contact

DAY of SILENCE®

Four Truths About the Day of Silence

The Day of Silence is about safer schools, tolerance and positive change. Some organizations misrepresent these facts. Here are 4 Truths about a day that has brought hope to students experiencing anti-LGBT name-calling, bullying and harassment

4 Truths - READ HERE

NEWS

12th National Day of Silence Honors Lawrence King

Click here for the full article

The Freedom to Speak (or Not), A Q&A from Lambda Legal PDF here

Get the latest updates at the BLOG, GO HERE

STAYInvolved...

Connect with other student organizers, find your local GLSEN chapter, get help starting a GSA, apply

© Copyright, 1996-2008
GLSEN (Gay, Lesbian and Straight Education Network)

Visited 4/24/2008

to our Jump Start national student leadership team, and more.