*"The presenter was very knowledgeable about the field of Education and Special Education. I am very excited to implement this into my resource room. I can't wait to make a difference for someone."
~ Ellen, a Special Ed Teacher*

BIG NEWS! Reading improves and brain structure changes after Lindamood-Bell's Seeing Stars® instruction.
~NeuroImage, August 2011

Welcome to Lindamood-Bell Learning Processes.

We enhance learning for all people, for all ages, for life.

Founded in 1986 by Charles and Patricia Lindamood and Nanci Bell, Lindamood-Bell is dedicated to enhancing human learning. Our founders are the authors of research-validated instructional programs that teach children and adults to read, spell, comprehend, think critically, and express language.
