Dan Ryan gunfire injures man in car

October 20, 2001

CHICAGO — Four shots were fired into a car Friday on the Dan Ryan Expressway, leaving one man hospitalized and midafternoon traffic snarled.

State police said the shooting occurred about 1:40 p.m. in the southbound lanes near 95th Street. Two drivers apparently were engaged in a dispute and shots were fired from one car into the other. Three shots hit the car, and a fourth hit a 24-year-old Chicago man, police said.

The victim, whose name was not immediately released, was in fair condition Friday night in Christ Hospital and Medical Center in Oak Lawn, authorities said.

Police said they are looking for two men who were driving a 1980s model, dark-color Ford.

Part of the southbound lanes of the Ryan were closed for a couple of hours after the shooting, creating long backups as the weekend rush was starting.
