Handling Small and Large Personal Injury Claims

Since our firm was established more than 30 years ago, we have been working hard to pursue the full compensation our clients need and deserve. Our attorneys have successfully obtained million-dollar verdicts in complex injury cases for clients suffering from catastrophic injuries. We have extensive experience handling large cases throughout Illinois, involving:

- Motor vehicle accidents
- Medical malpractice
- Product liability
- Nursing home negligence
- Other personal injury claims

We represent victims in cases of all sizes — not just the high-dollar-value cases. Regardless of the severity of the injury, we are dedicated to helping our clients obtain the compensation they deserve.

Protecting Workers Injured On-the-Job

Part of our law firm is devoted exclusively to workers' compensation. We carefully develop workers' compensation claims to maximize the compensation our clients receive for wage loss, disability and medical treatment. We have years of experience handling complex claims involving construction injuries, repetitive stress injuries and other work-related injuries or illnesses.
