

(c)
Apycom

Welcome to Federal Court Jury Service!

The information provided explains the procedures, duties and amenities of f District Court, Southern District of Indiana . Serving as a juror is a fundamer citizens of the United States. Only by having people like you participate in t all persons in federal court will be afforded their constitutional right to have a cross section of the community in this District.

Jury service sometimes requires sacrifices and may mean rearranging schedi missing work. Yet serving as a juror is an important civic and community dut responsibility. Those who serve as jurors have an opportunity to see the cou participate in a fundamental democratic process. We extend our sincere app in the process and trust that you will find your experience rewarding.

There are two types of juries in federal court: petit and grand. In general, consists of three stages, while the grand jury process consists of two. For i asked questions" (FAQs) about each stage, please select from the links below

1

Juror Qualification Questionnaire

2

Notice of Jury Service

