

Anthony Roach concentrates his practice in the areas of civil litigation and criminal law. Mr. Roach joined the firm after earning his law degree from the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law.

Some of Anthony's previous legal experience includes interning with the Marion County Superior Courts and serving as a Marion County Prosecutor in the Juvenile and Misdemeanor divisions. As a Marion County Prosecutor, Anthony was able to gain invaluable court experience as he tried numerous criminal court trials.

Born and raised in Indianapolis, Indiana, Anthony is a proud Ben Davis High School and Ball State University alumnus.

Education & Qualifications

- Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law , J.D., 2014
- Admitted to Indiana Bar, 2014
- Admitted to U.S. District Court, Northern and Southern Districts, 2016
- Ball State University, B.A., Sports Administration, Minor in Business Management

HOME / PRACTICE AREAS / PROFESSIONALS / CONTACT US

© 2018 Alerding Castor, LLP. All Rights Reserved

Legal Disclaimer