An old Cherokee told his grandson:

“ My son, there’s a battle between two wolves inside us all.

One is Evil.

It’s anger, jealousy, greed, resentment, inferiority, lies and ego.

The other is Good. ”

It’s joy, peace, love, hope, humility, kindness, & truth.

The boy thought about it, and asked:

“Grandfather, which wolf wins? ”

The old man quietly replied:

“The one you feed.”

Now the administrator has either 1 had a breakup which they are not handling well, 2 had melodramatic friends recommend the superior sulky feeling which comes with vague-booking, or 3 been replaced by a teenager. Either way, I'm out. Ciao.
