About American Medical and Life Insurance

American Medical and Life Insurance Company (AMLI) was incorporated in 1964 in New York as an out-of-network dental insurance alternative. Over the years, our portfolio has grown from Dental to Limited Medical Benefits, Stop Loss, Special Risk and Life Insurance products. Our primary customers have evolved from employers, unions, school districts and other governmental units, to a base of associations.

AMLI was purchased in 2006 by the TREK Holdings Corporation, a private insurance and healthcare service investor group. Under the leadership of new management, AMLI re-launched itself as a specialty risk insurer with a slate of new products and services, including Limited Medical Benefits medical insurance. Our proprietary distinction is as a market-driven insurance company that specializes in developing private labeled health and welfare products.

CORPORATE BIOS

Our business imperatives are simple

To exceed standards of other insurance companies in treating our clients and members in a fair and honest way

To innovate with unique, affordable health and welfare solutions for the consumer and quickly respond to the ever-changing demands of the marketplace.

To gain dominant market share by providing our distributor customers unparalleled support and flexibility; be the wholesaler of choice for all their product needs.

To operationalize a unique intellectual property around cost management, customer service and compliance to ensure long-term growth through AMLI's information systems, infrastructure and management team.
