

OFFICERS AND OFFICER ASSISTANTS

Who They Are

U.S. probation and pretrial services officers and officer assistants are

- U.S. district court employees. They provide services that protect the community and help the federal courts ensure the fair administration of justice.
- Federal law enforcement officers. They hold the responsibility to investigate and supervise persons charged with and convicted of crimes against the United States.

What They Do

What Professional Standards Apply to Them

How They Are Trained

Federal Judicial Center

On the Job