PROCEDURES IN SOCIAL SECURITY DISABILITY APPEALS
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the following procedures will be used in all Social Security Disability Appeals filed on or after August 1, 2014.

- (a) Commencing an Action. Social Security Disability appeals are appeals from decisions of an administrative agency. As in all other appeals, the party appealing—in this case, the plaintiff—will first be required to file a complaint/petition. Please see the form complaint accompanying these instructions. The plaintiff is obliged to include within the complaint the full social security number of the worker whose wage record forms the basis of the benefit application underlying the suit. A form complaint may be accessed HERE.

- (b) Service of the Complaint. The plaintiff must serve a copy of the complaint/petition on the Attorney General of the United States, the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, and the Commissioner of Social Security. The addresses for these offices may be accessed HERE.

- (c) Answer. Within 60 days after proof of service is filed, the transcript of the administrative proceedings and a Notice of Filing of the Certified Administrative Record should be filed with the court and served on the plaintiff as the Commissioner's Answer. If the Commissioner does not raise any affirmative defenses at the time that the record is filed and served, those defenses are deemed waived. Before substantive briefs are filed, see Section (d), immediately below, plaintiff's counsel is encouraged to contact counsel for the Commissioner to discuss cases that appear highly likely, upon consultation, to be subject to voluntary remand. See contact information for the Office of the Regional Chief Counsel HERE.

- (d) Briefing Schedule. These cases are in the nature of appeals from a final administrative agency decision, and for that reason, the process for filing summary judgment motions is not applicable, and no summary judgment motions shall be filed. Unless otherwise ordered, the court will issue a scheduling order establishing that the plaintiff's brief, identifying the specific grounds for appeal, must be filed within 40 days after the filing of the transcript together with appropriate supplemental materials; that the Commissioner will file a response, which may include additional relevant issues not raised by plaintiff together with appropriate supplemental materials, within 40 days of the filing of the plaintiff's brief; and that the plaintiff may file a reply brief within 15 days of the filing of the Commissioner's brief. This schedule may be modified only for good cause and with the judge's consent. When all briefing is completed, the court will be in a position to decide the appeal.

- (e) Length of Briefs. Unless otherwise ordered, the initial briefs of the plaintiff and the Commissioner shall not exceed 30 double-spaced pages each, and the reply brief of the plaintiff shall not exceed 15 double-spaced pages.

- (f) EAJA Fees. The parties are encouraged to resolve any requests for payment under the Equal Access to Justice Act (EAJA) informally. Plaintiff's counsel is encouraged to make an informal request for fees prior to filing a motion for fees with the court. Informal requests should be directed to the Regional Chief Counsel and should be supported by the assignment agreement as well as a detailed itemization of all attorney's fees. If the parties resolve the EAJA fees matter without further litigation, plaintiff's counsel should file the fee stipulation and proposed order and supporting documents. Based upon Astrue v. Ratliff, 560 U.S. 586 (2010), any fees paid belong to plaintiff and not his/her attorney, and the fees can be offset to satisfy pre-existing debt that the litigant owes to the United States. Model forms may be accessed HERE.
