

Deborah Dash Moore

Professor Dash Moore in the Editor-in-Chief of the Posen Library. She is a pioneering scholar of American Jewish history and the co-editor of Volume 10 of the Posen Library.

Read more about our Editor-In-Chief...

Explore the Posen Digital Library: Volume 10

Visual Culture

Painting, photography, prints, drawings, posters, mixed media, sculpture, installations, and architecture.

Spiritual & Religious Culture

Prayer book passages, personal prayer, and liturgical poetry.

Literature

Fiction, poetry, memoir, children's and young adults' literature, and drama.

Intellectual Culture

First-person accounts, personal reflections, critical evaluations, and ideological statements.

Popular Culture

Cartoons, comics, travel, and food.

Browse Chronologically

Video Overview

News & Updates

The Courage of Haim Gouri
February 6, 2018

The Many Lives of Julius Lester
January 30, 2018

Ronit Matalon's Legacy
January 19, 2018

See more News & Updates

Editors' Picks

The One Facing Us
by Ronit Matalon

The Book of Intimate Grammar
by David Grossman

The Sisters Rosensweig
by Wendy Wasserstein

Split at the Root
by Adrienne Rich

Seven Laments for the War-Dead
by Yehuda Amichai

See More Editors' Picks

