The Cook County Department of Corrections (CCDOC) is one of the largest (96 acres) single site county pre-detention facilities in the United States. Primarily holding pre-trial detainees, the Department admits approximately roughly 100,000 detainees annually and averages a daily population of 9,000.

The facility covers more than eight city blocks with ten divisions, a health services facility, two education departments, a privatized food service and commissary agency, and four additional onsite Sheriff's departments. Each CCDOC division has a detainee visiting area, dispensary, law library, chapel or multi-purpose room, staff office, and day room in the living units for detainees to eat meals and watch television etc.
