Types of Voter Fraud

Types of Voter and Electoral Fraud

Voter Fraud isn't limited to one type of voter fraud or common type of voter fraud. It is simply an illegal tampering with the process of an election. The reason (at least on paper) that voter fraud laws are in place is to protect our democracy from corruption and to ensure that all Voters have an equal vote in any given election.

The types of Voter Fraud include but are not limited Types of Voter Fraud to:

- Electorate Manipulation Including Manipulation of Demography and Disenfranchisement
- Intimidation Including Violence or the Threat of Violence, Attacks on Polling Places, Legal Threats and Economic Threats.
- Vote Buying
- Misinformation
- Misleading or Confusing Ballot Papers
- Ballot Stuffing
- Misrecording of Votes
- Misuse of Proxy Votes
- Destruction or Invalidation of Ballots
- Tampering with Electronic Voting Machine

What Types of Voter Fraud are a Problem in the US?

Any type of voter fraud is serious and there is no type of voter fraud that is harmless. That being said many types of electoral fraud have little to no effect on our democracy and our elections, while some types of voter fraud are potentially unhooking the very fabric of our democracy. Let's discuss some of the most pertinent types of voter fraud. Make sure to check out each section individually for a detailed look at the history of that type of fraud and facts and statistics on reported cases.

Educate your self about the types of voter fraud so you can help to fight against them to protect your vote in the next election.
