BISMARCK, N.D. - A 14-year-old was killed in an accidental shooting at a Bismarck gun range

Jaide Tosseth has been identified as the victim of the Sunday incident at McLean Bottoms Shooting range.

Police said the entire family was present at the gun range when the incident happened.

Law enforcement said the gun involved in the shooting was owned by the Tosseth family, and Jaide was in a 'safe-zone' when the shooting occurred.

The shooting remains under investigation, and police do not yet know whether it was a self-inflicted.

There are security cameras at the range and they are currently being reviewed.

It was unclear whether or not the cameras actually caught anything on tape.
