PROVIDER BIO

"My specialty is about helping people regain function," explains Dr. Feng Lu, whose practice focuses on back and spinal injuries. "I'm part of Marshfield Clinic's spine care team including specialists in physical medicine and rehabilitation, physical therapy, neurosurgery and orthopedic spine care."

"Back pain is nearly as common as the common cold," says Dr. Lu. "Back pain can occur from an injury, chronic condition, deterioration or be present at birth. Physical medicine and rehabilitation physicians help sort out the cause and how best to treat it nonoperatively."

"Treatment can include physical therapy, medication and injections in
