The Office of Equal Rights serves the Agency and the Nation by promoting affirmative employment, a discrimination-free work place, and equal access to FEMA programs and benefits.

- We perform our mission by providing expert guidance and proactive support.
- Our customers are the employees and managers of FEMA, State and local government officials, and the American people.
- Our goals are to bring the fullest human value to the work of the Agency and to fulfill our responsibilities under the Constitution.

The Office of Equal Rights can be contacted at 202-646-3535.
