BRP'S GLOBAL MANUFACTURING AND RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT FOOTPRINT SPANS ACROSS THREE CONTINENTS IN FIVE COUNTRIES.

BRP employs more than 7,600 people who continue a 70-year tradition of innovation across Canada, the United States, Austria, Finland, and Mexico.

In addition to its manufacturing facilities, BRP has created the Regional Innovation Centre (RIC) in GunsKirchen, Austria, where eco-performing engine technology is developed; has built the Laurent Beaudoin Design & Innovation Centre (CDI) in Valcourt, Canada, BRP's privileged design tool. It has also established a partnership with Sherbrooke University for the creation of the Advanced Technology Centre BRP - Sherbrooke University (CTA) that is unique in Canada.
