Area Hospital Systems

As is true in most regions of the country, independent hospitals in southeastern Wisconsin have given way to integrated health care systems that bring together hospitals, clinics, physicians and specialty providers such as home health agencies and hospice. Six hospital systems serve the Milwaukee area:

- Aurora Health Care (1,755 inpatient beds)
- Wheaton Franciscan Healthcare (975 inpatient beds)
- Froedtert Health (712 inpatient beds)
- Columbia St. Mary's (613 inpatient beds)
- ProHealth Care (411 inpatient beds)
- Children's Health System (296 inpatient beds)

Following are descriptions of these systems:

Aurora Health Care

Aurora Health Care, a not-for-profit health care organization created in 1984, has become a nationally recognized leader in efforts to improve the quality of health care. Aurora has sites in more than 90 communities throughout eastern Wisconsin and northern Illinois, including 15 hospitals, more than 155 clinics and 70 pharmacies. More than 3,300 physicians are affiliated with Aurora, including more than 900 in the Aurora Medical Group and 280 with Aurora Advanced Healthcare. Aurora offers home care and hospice services through Aurora Visiting Nurse Association of Wisconsin; family and social services through Aurora Family Service and Village Adult Services; and behavioral health through Aurora Behavioral Health Services. Aurora also offers treatment for common medical conditions at Aurora Quick Care sites which are located in shopping malls and many other public locations. Address: 750 W. Virginia St., Milwaukee; Telephone: (414) 647-3033; Website: www.aurorahealthcare.org

Children's Hospital of Wisconsin

Children's Hospital of Wisconsin is the region's only independent health care system dedicated solely to the health and well-being of children. It includes Children's Hospital of Wisconsin in Milwaukee, one of the nation's top pediatric facilities, ranked #4 by Parents magazine. It provides inpatient care (including intensive care services) and outpatient services at more than 70 specialty clinics. Other affiliates include Children's Hospital in Neenah; primary care clinics, specialty care - a joint program of Children's Hospital and the Medical College of Wisconsin; Children's Community Health Plan; Children's Hospital Research Institute; and Children's Hospital Community Services.
