Michael Pullos is an associate in Winston & Strawn's litigation department who concentrates his practice on complex commercial litigation with an emphasis on civil and criminal antitrust matters.

Mr. Pullos has experience representing clients in litigation and government investigations involving a wide array of antitrust issues, including price fixing, group boycotts, monopolization, exclusive dealing, tying and merger enforcement as well as class actions. Mr. Pullos also routinely provides antitrust counseling for mergers and acquisitions and HSR compliance.

Mr. Pullos has also done significant work on behalf of clients in class actions, breach of contract disputes, breach of fiduciary duty and aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty claims, Lanham Act claims, healthcare acquisitions, clinical integration, and white collar government investigations. Mr. Pullos has represented clients in all stages of litigation, from drafting pre-trial dispositive motions and participating in discovery through settlement and trial. He also has experience in alternative dispute resolution, including commercial arbitration and mediation.

He is a member of the firm's Antitrust & Competition practice, recently ranked as a Tier 1 Practice nationally by U.S. News & World Report.

Michael Pullos received his B.A. with Distinction in Organizational Studies & Communications from the University of Michigan in 2003. He received his J.D., summa cum laude, from DePaul University College of Law in 2007, where he was a member of the Depaul Law Review and was elected to the Order of the Coif.

Honors & Awards

In 2015, Winston & Strawn was named the "Chicago Litigation Department of the Year" for general litigation by The National Law Journal.
