

Scheduled Rides for extra peace of mind

We get it. Sometimes you want to schedule a pickup in advance so you can rest assured an Uber will be available when you need it, especially if it's for a 4am ride to the airport. With Scheduled Rides you can request your Uber 30 days to 15 minutes ahead of time and have the comfort of knowing your Uber will be there when it's time to head out. See below for additional terms and information.

How it works

1 Schedule a ride

Choose your ride and tap "Schedule a Ride" to request up to 30 days in advance.

2 Set pickup info

Set your pickup date, time, location, and destination, and get a fare estimate.

3 Confirm your trip

Confirm the details of your upcoming trip and tap Schedule. You can edit or cancel at any time.

before your ride is ready.

4 Enjoy your ride

We'll send you reminders the day of the trip and notify you when your ride is on the way. We'll also let you know if surge pricing applies.

Schedule your ride in advance and enjoy

Peace of mind

Even when you have a flight to catch at the crack of dawn, rest assured your Uber will be there when you need it.

Convenient rides

We'll automatically send a car to arrive at your scheduled time - it's one less thing to worry about.

Fast and easy scheduling

Schedule your ride in just a few taps. Set your pickup date, time, location, and destination, and you're ready to go.

FAQs

Q: Who can use Scheduled Rides?

A: All riders are able to schedule their next ride in any city where Scheduled Rides are enabled.

Q: How much does it cost?

A: Scheduled Rides are priced exactly like a normal uberX ride and subject to pricing conditions at the future time the request is made. Surge pricing may apply.

Q: What if I need to cancel my scheduled ride?

A: No problem. You can cancel anytime before your ride request has been accepted, and after your ride request is accepted you can cancel per our normal policy without a cancellation fee.

Q: Am I guaranteed to get a ride?

A: Uber actively monitors availability to ensure that a car will arrive during the period you schedule a ride, but does not guarantee your scheduled ride. In the rare case a car cannot be found, you'll be notified immediately.
