Court Announcements and News

Court E-mail Scam
June 3, 2016

The court has received reports of fraudulent e-mail messages and telephone calls that appear to come from court employees. Often, the sender demands payment or personal information, or directs the reader to open an attachment. The message may look like this:

Notice to Appear,

You are notified that you have been scheduled to appear for a hearing that will take place on [mm/dd/yyyy] at 9:00 a.m. Please bring all documents and witnesses with you to court.

A copy of the court notice is attached. Please read it thoroughly.

Updated Fee Schedule
June 1, 2016

As of June 1, 2016, the miscellaneous fee schedule has been reorganized and updated. In particular, there is now a cost associated when requesting documents from the FRC via email through the Clerk's Office, and the fee for a transcript of judgment is the same as seeking a document certification. Please see the Court's Fee Schedule for specifics.
