USCIS Processing Time Information

How We Process Cases

We generally process cases in the order we receive them. This page shows estimates of how long each office is taking to process different types of cases. We update this page every month (around the 15th of each month). Please note that these data may change without notice.

To check processing times for your case, you will need to know:

- Which office is handling your case
- The type of form you filed, and
- The date we received your case

You can find this information on the receipt notice we mailed you.

How to Use This Chart

The charts on this page show most forms processed at our Field Offices and Service Centers. Use the drop- down menu to find the Field Office or Service Center that is processing your case.

Important Information About Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization

You can submit an inquiry about your Form I-765 if your case has been pending more than 75 days.

- Please note that for Form I-765 category (c)(8), based on a pending asylum application, the processing timeframes listed apply only to an initial filing.
- Please note that the adjudication of Form I-765 category (c)(33) filed with Form I-821D, requesting deferred action for childhood arrivals, does not begin until we make a decision on your request for deferred action.

The links below will provide processing times information for cases adjudicated in one of our international offices, asylum applications, or Administrative Appeals cases.
