Arrest made in Watertown Death Investigation

The Watertown Police Department announces the arrest of a male suspect age 32 from Waterloo, WI in connection with the homicide death of Heather A. Stewart age 28 of Clyman, WI. The suspect was arrested Tuesday, June 10th and is currently being held in the Jefferson County Jail.

Heather A. Stewart was found deceased in a vehicle on May 30, 2014 at 9:03 am. Heather Stewart had previously been reported as a missing person to the Dodge County Sheriff's Department and was last seen in Clyman, WI on May 28, 2014. The Watertown Police report the cause of death as a gunshot wound.

According to Chief Tim Roets, "This homicide investigation remains very active as our investigators continue to gather information. I encourage citizens with information to call our department. Specifically, any information concerning activity in the vicinity of the former Pick n Save building between 10:00 pm and 11:00 pm on Wednesday, May 28th."

Citizens with any information are encouraged to contact the Watertown Police Department at 261-6660. Citizens may also send information anonymously by text using Tip411. Information concerning Tip411 can be found on the department's web site <http://watertownpolice.com/>
