Foolproof Template to Line up Stamps with Dies for Gorgeous Flowershaping, Cardmaking & Scrapbooking

Published on Jun 16, 2014

This video demonstrates the Heartfelt Creations® technique of lining up the stamps with our dies. You will learn how to create a template to line up a single stamp, how to line up and cut out 12 flowers at once and lining up the stamps with dies that have cut lines on the edges. These techniques will have you die-cutting like a pro.

Comments

Roselin Primrose 9 months ago
this is a fab demo easy to understand thank you
Reply • 1

Charla Willson 1 year ago
I did not understand what "a die with a blade on the edge" means. Thank you for your videos.
Reply • 2

Debra Lovell 5 years ago
This has helped me tremendously! Thanks...Love your videos!
Reply •

Dorothy Mutafopulos 5 years ago
Thanks for doing this video it is really helpful. I did use this idea when I purchased the Fleur collection when you did the video on this collection.
Reply •
Verna Angerhofer 5 years ago
Just purchased these flower images and the die so I am glad I saw this technique showing how to do it. I hope to try it soon.

Reply ·

Suzanne Ponc 5 years ago
Hi Emma Lou, always good to do a refresher when you're not using your stuff every day, thanks for the pointers

Reply ·

Carol Bostick 3 years ago
I really enjoyed this video and can't wait to try this technique!

Reply ·

Darlene Bruehl 4 years ago
Hi Emma Lou!
I found the same necklace at Beall's in Florida! I also got one in all white! So pretty (and works with all my polka dot clothes)! It's a "Bay Studio" label.
Now I can look pretty (like you) when I am working with all my Heartfelt "toys"!
Read more

Reply ·

View reply from Heartfelt Creations

Lynn Burd 2 years ago
Thanks for the tip! Question: I have lost the paper piercer end and I'm wondering if I can buy that end?

Reply ·

View reply from Heartfelt Creations

Helen Negrón 2 years ago
Saludos.en los años que juego con stamp,no había unas flores tan bellas !!!

Reply ·

Dottie Davis 5 years ago
Thanks for this cutting dies tutorial. I appreciate it so much as I have stalled working with these flowers and dies because of being a little skittish lining them up. Now I know the method correctly I can get to it! Thanks a bazillion!

Reply ·

View reply from Heartfelt Creations

Kim Cavanagh 3 years ago
Hi Emma Lou
I always have issues lining up my classic leaf dies with the stamped image. I have tried this method shown here and still battle. What am I doing wrong? Please help as I absolutely love my heartfelt stamp and die sets, using them to most!! Thank you for such
Read more

Reply ·

View reply from Heartfelt Creations

Margaret Jones 2 years ago (edited)
Please name the products you are using and where I can buy these dies that you're presenting. Thanks.

Reply · 1
View 2 replies from Heartfelt Creations and others

Shannon Kelly 5 years ago
I really need to invest in some heartfelt creations dies and stamps!!!

Reply · 1

Roberta Sharpe 4 years ago
Thank you so much for that first video. I have trouble with the alignment of the dies, and sometimes it doesn't come out right at all. practice, practice,practice. Love your website, found a store near my home that offers your products.

Reply ·

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6U3QfWexXZ8

9/23/2019
Saint Molotov 5 years ago
This technique is going to stop me from getting irritated at the borders I keep getting when trying to match my stamp and dies. Thank you. Very useful!

Reply ·

HappyWifeCrafts Suzie 3 years ago
very good tip! TFS!

Reply ·

Pat Pos 1 year ago
loved this... it is really a great way to line your dies up to your stamped images. thank you. pat

Reply ·

Robyn G 4 years ago
This was an awesome video! Thank you so much! I ALWAYS seem to have problems lining up my dies and stamped images so THIS is going to be a real saver for me! Thanks!

Reply ·

Sherlock Hoka 5 years ago
Wonderful tips as always. Now I realized its because the cut lines are in the middle of a die that you have to make a mask for lining up. Cool.

Reply ·